

Poulsen To Fight Legal Action To Acquire Property

Attorney Charges State Is Acting Illegally With Condemnation

Wayne Poulsen of Squaw Valley charged in court last week that state attempts to condemn 73 acres of his land for the 1960 winter Olympics are unconstitutional. An answer to the state's suit was filed in Placer County superior court.

Poulsen's lawyer said he would fight the state's action to the highest courts if necessary, on the grounds that taking land for Olympic games is not condemnation for a public use.

The attorney, Archibald McDougall of Sacramento, said:

"If it is not one of public use, then of course eminent domain (condemnation power) does not exist because to take private lands for a private use would be unconstitutional."

McDougall based his case on two main arguments. That the state's proposed action is unconstitutional and that there is insufficient showing that a public necessity exists for holding the games.

California Olympic Commission officials have said in the past they turned to the condemnation method only after lengthy attempts to negotiate a peaceful settlement with Poulsen fell through.

Hale's Answer
Prentiss Cobb Hale, president of the Olympic games organizing committee, issued the following statement upon hearing of the Poulsen action.

"The question whether the acquisition of private lands for the Winter Olympics, and their later use as a public park, serves a public purpose is not a new one. It was raised by Mr. Poulsen and his attorney last year at committee hearings conducted by the California legislature.

"Subsequently, by almost unanimous vote, both houses of the legislature granted the California Olympic Commission the power of eminent domain. This action was taken in the name of the people of California and it confirmed a public purpose inherent in staging the winter games, and in the later use of the lands (as a state park) acquired for the enjoyment and benefit of all the people.

"Certainly the people of this state have it within their power to decree through their lawmakers, that they endorse this program. They have so decreed."

Chief Asks Local Observance Of Fire Prevention Week

Fire Chief N. F. Dolley this week called upon local residents to observe Fire Prevention Week from October 6 to 12 by making a complete check of their homes and businesses and eliminate every possible fire hazard.

Particular attention, Dolley declared, should be given heating units, chimneys, and electric wiring and appliances. During cold weather, the chief pointed out, many obsolete heating stoves, drafted with inadequate chimneys, are called upon to provide more heat than they were designed to supply. This creates a dangerous hazard and one which should be eliminated.

Soot filled stove pipes and chimneys are the cause of many fires, Dolley pointed out, in asking that these items be cleaned and carefully checked before the cold weather put them to maximum use. "Your fire department stands ready at all times to assist you in an emergency," Dolley declared, "but please don't foolishly provide that emergency by allowing fires to start."

Inadequate wiring, too, is an unnecessary hazard in the home, the chief pointed out. He asked all residents to check their house power to be doubly sure that it is adequate for the many extra appliances installed since the wiring was done. Fuses too heavy for the lines and make-shift fuse substitutes are extremely dangerous.

Rubbish, piles of papers, old rags and all other inflammable substances in attics, basements and closets should be removed, Dolley said, to provide safety in the home.

Labor Hearing On Olympic Job Held

Officials of the Diversified Builders and Macco Company of Los Angeles met Tuesday at Squaw Valley with representatives of the various building trades union to discuss labor relations and work out a plan of employment for constructing the 1960 Winter Olympic facilities.

Gail Gordon, head of the Sierra Nevada District Council, Gene F. Thompson, business representative for the carpenters' local and many others attended.

The meeting was entirely harmonious and it was agreed that only qualified union craftsmen will be employed on the first phase of the program, which got under way this week.

Roy Herzog, project superintendent for the Diversified Builders, General Superintendent Stoneaker and Labor Relations Counsel McGrath of Macco Company, were present to discuss the forthcoming project.

Grading and excavating work started in the valley Tuesday.

Airport Hearing Is Scheduled Oct. 14 By Placer Board

Supervisors Will Decide On Project at Session In Auburn

The board of supervisors of Placer County will hear the pros and cons of a proposal to construct an airport on the Brockway short-cut at a meeting called for 3 p.m. Monday, October 14 at Auburn.

The Nevada County Board has given tentative approval to the plan and now awaits action by the neighboring county before an election is called to determine whether or not an airport district embracing the same area covered by the Tahoe-Truckee Unified School District, shall be formed.

C. Edmunds, chairman of the local committee investigating the feasibility of the port, will attend the Auburn meeting. It is expected that opposition may be voiced from some areas, but because of the expressed desire to provide the north end of the lake with an adequate airport it is anticipated that the board will approve an election.

Edmunds said that both boards will require a feasibility report prior to taking the next step toward an election. Just what will make the report and what details are required is still under question.

The state aeronautics board and CAA and other state and national agencies have given enthusiastic endorsement to the airport plan and several airline companies have offered to take over the facility for operation and have agreed to finance the local cost of construction.

This cost will be shared by the local district at the federal government, the latter providing 53 percent of the outlay and maintenance.

SPORTSMEN TO SEE IDAHO FILMS FRIDAY

Homecoming Plan At High School Is Made For Oct. 19

Games, Dance Will Provide Highlights Here For Graduates

The Tahoe-Truckee High School Student Body, under the leadership of the Girls' Athletic Association and the Block T Society, is busy planning for the annual homecoming game and dance to be held on Saturday, October 19.

The celebration will begin Friday afternoon at which time a rally will be presented by the G.A.A. and Block T, with the high point being the naming of the homecoming queen and her attendants.

On Saturday, the student body will welcome back for the day all the graduates of the school at the two football games scheduled for the local gridiron.

At 12 noon Tahoe-Truckee's newly organized junior varsity team, coached by Cal Farley, will meet the Quincy JV in a preliminary game. Then at 2 p.m., Stan Drakulich's Wolverines will host the Lovelock Mustangs in a Northern Nevada Conference tilt. The homecoming queen and her attendants will be presented at half time of the second game, and the Tahoe-Truckee band, under the direction of Mr. Ross Price, will provide the musical note for the afternoon.

Festivities will be concluded Saturday evening as the sponsoring organizations present the big homecoming dance at 8 p.m. in the high school, with the queen being crowned during the evening.

All local fans are urged to turn out for this big afternoon of football and color as presented by the students of the Tahoe-Truckee High School.

NEW SCHOOL BUS IS ORDERED BY BOARD

The governing board of the Tahoe-Truckee Unified School District last week accepted the only bid presented for a new 72-passenger school bus and ordered the vehicle from Gillig Brothers at a cost of $18,363.28, including tax.

No one attended the meeting to protest the sale of the old Meadow Lake High School building and upon a motion by Jack Felte a resolution was passed approving the execution of a grant deed to the division of highways. The state paid approximately $25,000 for the building and property.

The board authorized Superintendent John S. Corbin to appear before a meeting of the Nevada County Board of Supervisors relative to a more convenient access road to the new four-lane highway at Floriston.

CHILDREN WARNED ON BICYCLE RIDING

Local officers have issued a warning to boys and girls who are riding their bicycles on the sidewalks.

Unless the practice is discontinued, Deputy Sheriff Emory Lander declared, it will be necessary to take the bicycle away from the owner until they conform with the regulations.

The bicycles are dangerous to people, especially children, coming onto the sidewalks from stores into the path of the speeding vehicles.

$400,000 DAMAGE IS SOUGHT IN DEATH

A damage suit in the amount of $400,000 has been filed in the federal district court at San Francisco as the result of a fatal car-truck crash near here September 18.

Defendants in the action are the Interstate Motor Lines of Salt Lake City and one of its drivers, Raymond Riddle of West Jordan, Utah. Plaintiffs are Mrs. Hazel Wilhelm of Pittsburg, who charges her husband, Walter, 50, was killed in the accident; Mrs. Patricia Lake, 40, of Pittsburg and Bruce Powell of Bethel Island.

AL BROYER TO SEEK RETURN TO OFFICE

ROSEVILLE—District Attorney Al B. Broyer has announced he will seek reelection. He is completing his second four-year term.

Under a new legislative act, the office will become full-time under the new term at a salary of $11,500 a year and the district attorney will have to discontinue his private practice.

Work Starts This Week On Squaw Valley Facilities

Contract Signed For First Phase Of Olympic Facilities

A contract for the first phase of the facilities to stage the 1960 Winter Olympic games at Squaw Valley was signed in San Francisco Monday and crews from the Diversified Builders of Los Angeles immediately moved into the valley to start work.

The first phase of the work will cost the state $2,307,000 and will provide four buildings in the Olympic Village to house 1200 athletes; administrative, maintenance and a dice rink service buildings; three ski jumps, a water distribution system, roads and parking areas, site clearance, grading and a flood control reservoir and channels.

Starting of the first phase of the work was made possible last week when Judge Leland Propp of Placer County signed an order giving the California Olympic Commission immediate possession of 10 acres of land owned by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Poulsen.

The balance of the 72 acres asked from the Poulsens is still in litigation awaiting the outcome of a settlement in or out of court. The state filed a condemnation action against the Poulsens and others for the 72 acres after attempts to reach a settlement out of court failed.

Although the state charged the Poulsens demanded $440,000 for land required, this was denied by the owners, who said the figure was far above what they actually want for the use of the land for staging the Olympics. The state offered $103,000.

DYNAMITE BLAST AT FARAD CUTS POWER

An unusually heavy charge of dynamite used on the construction of Highway 40 near Farad by Gibbons & Reed, contractors, Monday evening shortly after 4 o'clock blew out the two 60KV lines of the Sierra Pacific Power Company and the Truckee-Donner Lake area was without power for half an hour. The blast came right at a time when the two lines were being changed over and that accounted for the lengthy delay.

After the lines are permanently installed, power will be available from either of the two lines and the loss of one would not occasion more than a brief delay.

NIXON AIDE NAMED TO OLYMPIC POST

Robert L. King, top assistant to Vice President Richard M. Nixon has been named executive director of the 1960 Winter Olympics by Prentiss C. Hale, president of the organizing committee.

King will maintain offices in San Francisco as executive director.

ATTENDANCE IS BACK TO NORMAL IN SCHOOL

It was never announced whether or not the near-epidemic was the so-called Asiatic type.

Miller and Dan Anderson will officiate as worthy matron and worthy patron, while Pearl and Charles Heller will fill the station of associate matron and associate patron. ## AFFAIRS OF STATE

Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The general reaction at the State Capitol to a story published to the effect that Lieut. Gov. Harold J. Powers maintains his headquarters in Eagleville and draws expenses from state while in Sacramento is "so what?"

The story apparently was an attempt on the part of someone or other to provide some fine and fancy discrediting on the popular lieutenant governor, who has been considering running for the United States Senate.

However, a review of the situation reveals the fact that most of the state's constitutional officers headquarter in the cities of their residences and draw state expense while out of those cities.

Powers, of course, is in a peculiar position insofar as expenses are concerned. He is the presiding officer of the state senate, and all members of that body, as well as members of the assembly, draws $18 per day expenses.

However, this is denied to Powers, the presiding officer, because of the fact that he is a constitutional officer. So unless there was a vehicle whereby he could draw expenses during the session, he would be forced to live in Sacramento on his own funds for some six months, while the legislature is in session.

And at the same time, the senators over whom he presided, would be drawing $18 per diem.

In commenting on the facts, which have been a public record for a long time, Powers pointed out there is nothing legally, or morally wrong with drawing expenses while performing state services. All civil service employees do it, as do other constitutional officers.

While Gov Goodwin J. Knight was lieutenant governor of the state, his headquarters were in Los Angeles, the place where he cast his ballots, and maintained his home. Powers likewise, maintains his home in Eagleville, and has voted in that community, located in northeastern California, ever since he started to vote.

Also, one of the somewhat peculiar things in the situation is the fact that Lieutenant Governor Powers never asked the state board of control, which fixes headquarters of state employees, to move his headquarters from Sacramento to Eagleville. The board did this on its own motion, without ever contacting Powers about the matter.

State Director of Finance John M. Peirce, a member of the board of control, said the disclosures would result in another look at the headquarters of all state constitutional officers, including the members of the board of board of equalization, to determine if the board's policies are in accord with the law.

It was pointed out to Peirce that under the state constitution, the City of Sacramento is supposed to be the "seat" of the state government which would be an implication that it should be the headquarters. However, many constitutional officers, including Attorney General Edmund G. Brown, and the members of the state supreme court, are headquartered outside of Sacramento, and thus are able to draw expenses when they are in the "seat" of government.

Richard A. Schieck of San Rafael, cited by John Schindler for throwing hot ashes on his property at Tahoe Pines, and leaving without dowsing same, was fined $100 by Judge Charrison.

The Tahoe Area Council opens its finance campaigns for the un-council during the month of Oc-

The total goal is established by the council finance committee under the chairmanship of Dean Han-the various districts. This is broken down into seeking 2500 sustaining members who agree to underwrite one boy for the Scouting year, membership being $12 per year.

Paul Chamberlain, president of the Tahoe Area Council, briefly explained what the income is used for in the Scouting program.

Chamberlain stated:
"All of the money raised in the Tahoe Area Council is spent in the council to operate the Scout-income of the council," he said,

"is from communities and individ-

NORTH TAHOE

By JUDGE HARRY CHARRISON

Sunday Morning

Yes, Sunday morning and it's bright and sunny, just a little windy, as it has been for the past few days, in fact it has been very windy and quite a little moisture. A few snowflakes with a few inches at the high elevation. We are still hoping for our annual Indian summer.

Going Out

The Don Vance family was up over the weekend and turning the water off for the winter, but they will be up at intervals during the winter.

Marriage

The marriage of Patricia Spracklin to William Gosney was reported in last week's issue, but I just can't let the occasion pass by without a word of congratulations. We have known Pat for quite some time. One of the sweetest girls in our neighborhood. So we offer the happy couple congratulations and a wonderful life of wedded bliss.

Out For Winter
Mrs. Vern C. Shattuck left her beautiful home in Kings Beach for San Jose where she will spend the winter. Mrs. Shattuck recently bought the home on the golf course.

Left For Las Vegas

Our very good friends and summer neighbors, Buckey and Mary Harris of the North Shore Club, after spending a month since closing the club, have left for Las Vegas, and are already looking forward to returning to their popular Tahoe resort.

Birthday

Young Harvey Klitzke had another birthday last October 3rd and of all things he is nine years old. He had 14 guests and what a time they had with games and refreshments of all kinds and presents too many to count. His great grandmother was on hand to help celebrate the occasion. Mrs. Clara Rummels from Burbank. She is the grandmother of Florine Klitzke. Last Sunday the family still celebrating for young Harvey went to the south end of the lake. It was the first time for Mrs. Rummels to visit a floor show, and by all accounts it was a complete success.

Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Haste, real estate brokers of Tahoma, had a birthday and anniversary party at the Crystal Bay Club on October 1. This was at the invitation of the management of the club. They just had a wonderful time, one that they will remember for a long time.

Congratulations

Wiley Jones is getting well deserved congratulations on the certificate of achievement that was just awarded to him on his completion of a one-year program in "Successful Management of Bars and Taverns," sponsored by a distilling company. The certificate is mounted on a handsome plaque and is beautifully impressive. Wiley is manager of the bars of Crystal Bay Club.

Party

The big party at the Crystal Bay Club last Friday night was attended by approximately 1000 or more people and it was really a brilliant affair. The buffet table was the most gorgeous I have ever seen, thanks to the chef, Marcel Fordoux and his assistants. Now we can look forward to another big night, that of October 28. It will be a Halloween party, the tenth to be held by V.F.W. Auxiliary Post, No. 7077 of Crystal Bay. Again there will be a free buffet, and dancing to a live orchestra, balloons and prizes. This is a reminder, so watch for the ad in this paper.

Visiting

Mrs. Bond, mother of Francis Rockholm, was visiting there during the past week. Mrs. Bond has a home in San Francisco and makes a visit every so often, but not often enough, according to Francis.

Away

Unadel Crawford is down in Pasadena spending about a month with her sister. Her husband, Ernie is batching and says the month just can't go fast enough.

Still More Signs

Harry McIntire, president of the North Tahoe Businessmen's Association, tells again that the association is going ahead with the placing of signs from one end of the state and Nevada to the other, and it is sure paying off, as one can tell by the comments from travelers. Many more will be placed on the highways as the money comes in so if you are interested call Tom James, chairman of the committee.

Here And Gone

The Walley Skaggs had as their visitors for a few days during the past week Mrs. Skaggs' brother and his wife from Chicago. They are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Collier. Upon leaving they visited Wyoming and Omaha. Mrs. Collier is a painter, sample of which may be seen at the Skagg home.

Returned

Was very pleased to see Ross Harried, son of Carl, and Mrs. Harried of Tahoe Vista. Have known Ross for quite a few years. He has just returned from Honolulu, where he was at the special school temple and served as dental assistant. He was there for 28 months and received his discharge just before Labor Day. We are happy to know that Ross will make his home at the lake for at least the time being. Nice to have you, Ross.

House Warming

Just recently Ray and Joy Plunkett had a house warming at their beautiful home at Incline Beach. Millie Chastain and Mary Langguth were responsible for the arrangements. Many fine household gifts were presented and it was a gathering to remember. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Langguth, Mrs. Eda Judy, Mrs. Franklin, Kay Felte, Mrs. Otto Walter, Mrs. Ray Finnigan, Minnie Chastain, Icy Laborde and Thelma Hughes. Buffet lunch and other refreshments were served. I understand that the Plunketts are about to take a vacation and believe it might be Mexico. It is sure coming to Ray, as he has worked like a trojan keeping the Crystal Bay Club in order and what a wonderful job he has made too. Now I hear they are going to make Disneyland too.

All New

Mrs. H. E. McCoskey of the Crystal Bay Club is yet another subscriber to the Sierra Sun. The McCoskeys have a beautiful new home at Incline Beach and it is divine inside and out. They were getting set for a vacation, too.

Big Meeting

Sam Faulkner of Kings Beach says there will be a meeting in the Masonic Temple in Truckee on Saturday at 8 p.m. It will feature Constitution Observance Night. There will be a guest speaker, and the meeting will be open to the public. So plan to attend.

Announcement

Now it's Bob Snyder that has fallen to cupid. The engagement to Catherine Saunders. This announcement has been awaited for was announced last Sunday to a long time and yet it is a surprise to most of us. I understand the date for the event has not been announced, but it will most likely be around the new year. Congratulations, Bob and Catherine.

Visits Son

Ella Blake made a quick trip up from Richmond to visit her son, Lloyd. She arrived in the morning and left in the evening and was accompanied by a friend of the family, Jack Marshall, and Les Member. It was sure nice to see her even though the visit was short.

Another Citizen

Congratulations to Jimmie and Mrs. Astel of Kings Beach, upon the arrival of a daughter born in the wee hours of October 7. This makes a quartet now, and all girls.

Anniversary

And again congratulations to our friends, the C. W. Vernons of Tahoe City who celebrated their 48th anniversary of wedded bliss. They were royally entertained at

STRICTLY STRICKLAND

By Bill Strickland

About one hundred guests attended the wedding and reception of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Alaimo, Jr. (nee Marles Rau), held in Reno, October 6. Marles was radiant as she went down the aisle on the arm of her father, Fred, and was met by the groom at the altar of the St. Thomas Aquinas Cathedral. Little sister Eileen led the process-sion of bridesmaids as flower girl and brother Ronnie was present as an attendant along with the best man and other attendants. A beautiful ceremony to start this young lady off on her married career.

Work on US 40 between Floriston and the Nevada state line is progressing very rapidly. Traffic is now using several fills which are up to grade and have a gravel surface. According to John Peterson, resident engineer, all four lanes will be up to grade and have a gravel surface before the job is closed down for the winter. Over 200,000 folders have been distributed to the public explaining the project and giving the reasons for the necessary delays. The Olympic organizers sure missed the boat by not having their games folders available for distribution, too. There were thousands of cars from every state in the union going through, and that would certainly have been an ideal way of letting the public know of this big event coming to our mountains in 1960.

Our Mountain Top population has returned to normal what with the summer residents having returned to their homes elsewhere—and, just in time, too. Our hills now have between three and five inches of snow blanketing them. An early reminder that winter can arrive any day, and probably will.

Carl and Dick Buck are finishing the third and final addition to their Buck Ski Shop. It will be the largest, and one of the best equipped shops on the Mountain, upon completion.

We see Ken and Esther Heimback of Rainbow Tavern every now and then. They've been very busy all summer and have had to stay pretty close to home and business.

Donner Summit Lodge is getting lots of new and bright colors via the paint brush. It has been the busiest resort on the Top of the Mountain; so the marks of usage are being repaired and renovated.

Lee and June Forster of the Soda Springs Skate and Ski Shop have moved into Bill Rutherford's house for the winter. A real swell couple and welcome additions to our winter populace.

Max Williamson has been busy with his chain saw on the Ski Hill knocking down a lot of second growth pine as well as burning a lot of the timber that was felled previously.

Peg Travis has returned to D.S.L. after having spent the best part of the summer at Sierra Lakes.

A new foundation has been poured on the site of John Carl's house. Bill Young, photographer for the San Francisco Chronicle, will build a mountain retreat. Perhaps, also, we will have more photographic coverage of this area as a result. This makes two fine photographers in our area now.

Luigi Foerfer of the Sugar Bowl, directed some of the finest ski films we've ever seen while he headed Yosemite's Ski School.

Understand Milt Avila and Grats Powers are returning to our Mountain Top also. Of course, Milt and Maggie never have been very far away—but, Grats has been in San Francisco for several years. Grats and wife, Winnie, will be arriving with an additional member also—a new baby daughter.

Before I forget, here is the schedule for unrestricted travel through

NEWS NOTES FROM TAHOE

By Naomi McLane

Tahoe City, Box, 711, Juniper 3-3187

Rotary Meet

In the absence of President Warren Porter, Vice-President Martin Spitsen presided over the October 1 meeting of Rotary at the Tahoe Inn. Thirty-six members were present and only one visitor, E. Walter Johnson of Oakland. Stanley Pomin, Jr., of Sparks, was a guest of his uncle, Ernest Pomin. Dave Gaynor, program chairman, supplied a most interesting movie film, "The Building of the Alcan Highway."

Nursery School Opens

Mrs. Charles Henrikson would like all new mothers of nursery school age children (from two years old up) to know that the Tahoe Lake Cooperative Nursery School opened Wednesday morning, October 9 at the Tahoe Marina Lodge. As last year, Mrs. Elaine Wright is the directing teacher and the school days will be Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 8:15 to 11:15 a.m. The parents of the nursery school are most grateful to the Hinkeys who are letting their lodge be used until a more permanent place can be found. Any parents who would like to know more about the school should phone Eunice Henrikson at Juniper 3-3972 or Elaine Wright at Liberty 6-2683.

Party Hostess

Carolee Campbell was hostess to a little supper party Friday night, October 4, at her home in Tahoma. Vicky Rich, Suzanne Sprague and Susan Moyer were the guests who gathered to help her celebrate her 12th birthday. In spite of the bad weather the girls had an outdoor treasure hunt but were glad to dine by the fireplace immediately afterwards. Carolee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Campbell.

Visit Lake

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Elliott who have spent many summers in Tahoma are up for two or three weeks at the present time. Elliott helped build Eddie Moore's cottages near the junction of the highway and El Dorado County road.

Hosts Friends

Mrs. Millie Thompson of Tahoe Pines was hostess to several friends at a luncheon at Harrah's Club at the South End of the lake Thursday. Mrs. Hazel Hoxie, Mrs. Jacie Campbell, Mrs. Etella Elliott and Mrs. Ev Curtis all drove down together.

Move To Tahoe

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wray and their two daughters, Joanne and Rosemary, have moved into Tahoe City for the winter months. They are in the upper apartment of the Mayfield house, right across the road from Wray's Homelife office.

The Women's Club of Tahoe met at the Tahoe Inn for a luncheon meeting Thursday. Twenty-two members and eight guests were present. A door prize was won by Mrs. Oakley Hall of Squaw Valley. Bingo was the order of entertainment after Mrs. Belle Hunter had put a yellow crepe paper lei around the neck of Mrs. Della Mortimer who sails for Hawaii with her husband this month to spend the winter. Mrs. Louise Geier presented the traveler with a rhinestone pin as a bon voyage gift from the club. The November 7th meeting of the club will be held at Bacchi's in Lake Forest.

Church Grows

From its small beginnings the little church meeting at St. Nicholas Hall at the summer chapel grounds is branching out. This coming Sunday at 7 p.m. a meeting for all young people from the age of 12 on up is to be held at the hall. Also an inquirers' class is to be started next week. All interested are asked to get in touch with Charles Beardsley at Juniper 3-3329 or at the church service Sunday so that a meeting time can be agreed upon. A new furnace for St. Nicholas Hall has arrived, the gift of Noel Porter, Jr., and his business associates in Palo Alto. Porter is the mayor of that city at the present time. On the altar this last Sunday were two candle sticks which Bishop Porter had sent as a gift to the little new church. They had been taken from Old St. Paul's Church in Sacramento which was torn down many years ago. Norman Mayfield was responsible for the load of wood delivered in time for a cheerful fire Sunday morning. Gordon Moyer is at work upon an altar rail which will be installed as soon as it is completed. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bury were hosts at the church door Sunday and Mrs. Jeannette Mitchell was coffee hostess. Mrs. C. E. Bosen played the organ and Gerry Waters sang the offertory solo. Donnie Bury and Jerry Grinstead were News of the junior class rings was received on October 3. Since then most of these rings have been picked up at Thomas Jewelers in Truckee. They are made of ten-karat gold, with raised and inset gold and black lettering. The juniors are selling bookcovers and pom-poms this week at the student store. The bookcovers are 15 cents each or two for 25 cents. Their colorful pom-poms will sell for 25 cents apiece. The profits from these sales will be applied towards the junior-senior prom in the spring.

The California Scholarship Federation had its first meeting of this year on October 2. Mrs. Meiss and Mr. Marvin will be advisors for CSF and will try to help in every way possible. Among other things, the club discussed activities for the coming year and the election of officers. The new officers are: Barry Graton, president; Dean

How telephone men fight metal-eating winds

Tony Gurnari and Vic Sculatti (left and right above) are part of a telephone metal-testing team. They're prying open what we call a terminal box. It's like the one to which telephone wires from your house are connected. But this one is frozen shut by a hungry metal-eater called corrosion. Corrosion can be caused by salt-laden wind, fog or ocean spray. It can rust, pit or crack tough metals. So we test to find metals that are economical to use yet resist corrosion. Telephone men also study other destroyers like wood rot, insects and even gnawing animals. By controlling such destroyers, we save thousands of dollars worth of equipment each year.

At the test site, Tony and Vic are at work learning new facts about corrosion by exposing metals to ocean winds and other elements. Their tests are part of our effort to lengthen the life of every kind of equipment serving your phone. At the same time these tests help us keep your service dependable.

Mrs. Ruth Droste has left her home in Los Angeles to visit with her aging parents in Canal Fulton, Ohio. Manager of her Tahoe Realty Company at Tahoe City, C. A. (Butch) Beavers, visited with her recently and declares she looks fine and is enjoying better health than for some time past. Mrs. Droste recently purchased an apartment house in the southern city before her departure.

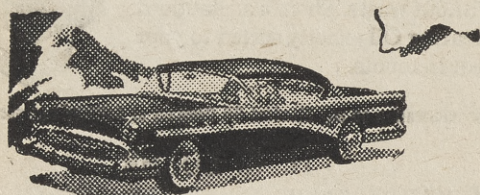

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tyldesly of Squaw Valley will be making their home in Los Angeles this winter. Bob was notified of the severe illness of a relative in Washington and flew back for a visit. Pat's allergy is greatly improved following treatments from a Long Beach specialist.

Weekend guests at the Jim Bakkers on Fairway Drive included Betty's brother, Dick Leuschner, Jr., and Miss Pat Bryson, both of Merced. While here the visitors scoured the area for a buck, with no success.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. George Boyle and family of Fairway Drive left for Reno where they will spend the winter. Mr. Boyle is engaged as carpenter foreman in the "Biggest Little City."

MODERN RECONNAISSANCE—At Fort Huachuca, Ariz., once a cavalry post dating back to Indian fighting days, complicated Signal Corps equipment of all kinds is today put to user test. A soldier attaches the large flash cartridges used in night photo-reconnaissance flights to the wings of a light Army airplane.

gaged as carpenter foreman in the "Biggest Little City."

Joe Henry has recovered sufficiently from his recent severe illness to accompany wife Marie to Reno on Monday.

George Mead, who with his wife took over the Maris Franz property near the highway in Tahoe Park on October 1, has been busily engaged removing trees and widening the road in front of the cabins. Come spring he plans to plant lawns all around his cottages and landscape the property attractively.

The thermometer dipped to 26 above this bright and Sunday morning, after a cloudy weekend. It hit 22 above last week, all of which will hasten the gorgeous fall colors on the cottonwoods now turning a luscious yellow. I went to Reno on Thursday last in Tahoe's coldest snowstorm of the current season, which failed to remain on the ground. The mountains surrounding the lake are white, especially Mt. Rose and others in that vicinity.

Hunting continues poor, with very few killed in this area. Not like the good old days.

TIMELY TIPS

by MRS. MARIE HENRY

All stored garbage should be buried, if collection service is unavailable, in a hole dug deep enough to cover with at least 12 to 24 inches of dirt. This will prevent insect breeding and discourage animals from digging it up. Never dump garbage on the ground—this attracts rats and other scavengers.

WARNING ISSUED ON TREE LAW CHANGES

With the time for Christmas tree harvesting approaching, Supervisor L. A. Rickel of the Tahoe National Forest, calls attention to important changes in the state law regarding unauthorized cutting.

Whether such cutting is intentional or not, penalties over and above the value of the trees will apply under most circumstances.

An intensified patrol of Christmas tree areas is planned this year through joint efforts of private land owners and the forest service. Depredations by tree trespassers have made the business difficult for land owners and legitimate tree dealers. The state legislature has become aroused. The new law, it is hoped, will help to make Christmas tree harvesting the orderly business it should be. Rickel stated.

TO ELKO

TAHOE CITY—On Friday a quartet of local hunters left for Elko, Nev., where they hope to bring down a nice fat buck, and doe apiece before returning home. They left in three jeeps. The party included Ray Moe, Ray Grahm, Steve Landers and his father-in-law.

and 4 p.m.

Only two Cub Scouts were present for Saturday's meeting due to illnesses and other excuses, these being George Selkirk and Dale Mitchell. However, in spite of the slim attendance plans were discussed for the week's projects, the theme for October and for furthering the popularity and success of future get-togethers.

This week's project, which the Cubs will make with the aid of their parents, are a parachute and catapult and a hurricane lamp. The monthly themes are ghosts and goblins, Columbus Day and fire prevention week, which extends from October 3 to the 10, and the United Nations.

Meeting of all packs is held on the last Thursday night of each month in the Community Hall. All mothers and fathers of Cub Scouts are cordially invited to attend any of the conclaves and Mrs. Mitchell is hoping for a full attendance on next Saturday, October 12.

Tobogganing May Be On Games List

Authorization to add tobogganing—a thrilling team and solo competition conducted on a steep curving course—as an official event of the VIIIth Olympic Winter Games at Squaw Valley in 1960, was received by officials of the meeting in Sofia, Bulgaria, of the International Olympic Committee.

The disclosure was made on the arrival by plane in San Francisco of Robert DiGiorgio, executive vice president of the organizing committee, and H. D. Thoreau, executive secretary of the California Olympic Commission.

With Prentiss Cobb Hale, president of the committee, and William H. Orrick, Jr., legal counsel, they submitted a progress report to the IOC during a week-long meeting in the Bulgarian capital. The organizing committee will investigate the cost of constructing the toboggan course and canvass sports federation representatives of nations planning to compete in the Squaw Valley Olympics, before a decision is made on inclusion of the event in the roster of competitions, DiGiorgio reported.

Thoreau reported that the dates for the winter Olympics—February 11 to 22, inclusive—were tentatively approved by the IOC although they may be shortened by one day after the games organizers have had an opportunity to review the schedule of events. Normally, winter Olympics are confined to a maximum of 11 days.

Transportation Is Tahoe Talk Topic

MEEKS BAY—Three officers of the Greyhound Bus Lines met with representatives from both ends of the lake here Wednesday in an effort to learn the transportation needs of the area and what could be done about them.

Fred Schultz, president of the Tahoe Sierra Chamber of Commerce, opened the meeting to general discussion. W. E. Hastings, traffic manager, and N. L. Maino, director of transportation of Western Greyhound, were frank in their acknowledgement of the difficulties. T. R. Warner, from Chicago, director of communication of the Greyhound corporation, was also present.

Hastings recognized the population increase and quoted figures showing that in the summer of 1952 Greyhound had taken 26,000 passengers to the south of the lake. In 1956 with a population four times greater the number of ticketed passengers had dropped to $16,000. "This is not all due to bad bus service," he said.

Maino said the company had dropped its franchise over Highway 28 but is keeping its summer franchise over 89 from Truckee to Tahoe City. However, they would do their best to help out in any summer-winter arrangement that can be worked out.

South end lake dwellers will undoubtedly have winter service in the form of either every other day round trips from Sacramento or up one day and back the next on a Reno-Sacramento schedule.

Nothing at the moment could be decided for north lake transportation but the line will cooperate to the fullest extent in what ever can be effectively worked out, all officials agreed.

George Kehlet was host to the small group which met in his home. George Phillips from Kings Beach, Ray Knisley from Camp Richardson and George Cannon from Heavenly Valley were chamber of commerce representatives at the informal meeting.

Burner Fined

Frank Whitear of Donner Lake paid a fine of $150 to Judge Victor Montre of Grass Valley, sitting in the Truckee Judicial District Court Wednesday after a jury found him guilty of burning after legal hours. Oscar Schumacher was foreman of the jury. Whitear was cited during the summer by the forest service.

BACK AT TAHOE

This Sunday the sermon will be "The Tree of Life: the Roots of Faith," the first of a series of three on the basis of Christian life centered around the three words, faith, hope and love.

Rev. Langguth of Kings Beach will be here each Wednesday, welcoming anyone who will stop at the local church in the morning and during the afternoon he will call at the hospital and in the community.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED AT TAHOE GATHERING

TAHOE CITY—Close to 100 invited guests were surprised and delighted by the formal announcement here Sunday afternoon of the forthcoming marriage of Bob Snyder of Lake Forest and Catherine Saunders of Madera. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Snyder, parents of the benedict, were hosts at the formal cocktail party which was held in the spacious living room of Mr. and Mrs. Don Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Riolo, sister of Mrs. Don Snyder, motored up from Sacramento to take part in the announcement occasion and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Grinstead helped in the serving of cocktails and tea and coffee.

White Irish linen covered the table which was set off by a beautiful arrangement of gladioli and stock. Above hung the life-size pastel portrait of Sandra Snyder which is lovely against the mahogany wall. On a huge silver tray a cake with the names, Kay and Bob, completed the engagement decor. The family and a few friends toasted the couple in pink champagne out of a large goblet from which each sipped in turn. After this little ceremony the group dined together at the Crystal Bay Club.

Miss Catherine Saunders is the daughter of Mrs. John A. Franchi of Madera and Santa Cruz. She attended the College of the Pacific where she majored in music and dancing. She graduated in 1943.

Robert L. Snyder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Snyder of Lake Forest and is in the Snyder Lumber Company with his father and brother, Don. Bob attended the College of the Pacific where he met his wife-to-be. The couple plan a January wedding.

Tarzan

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

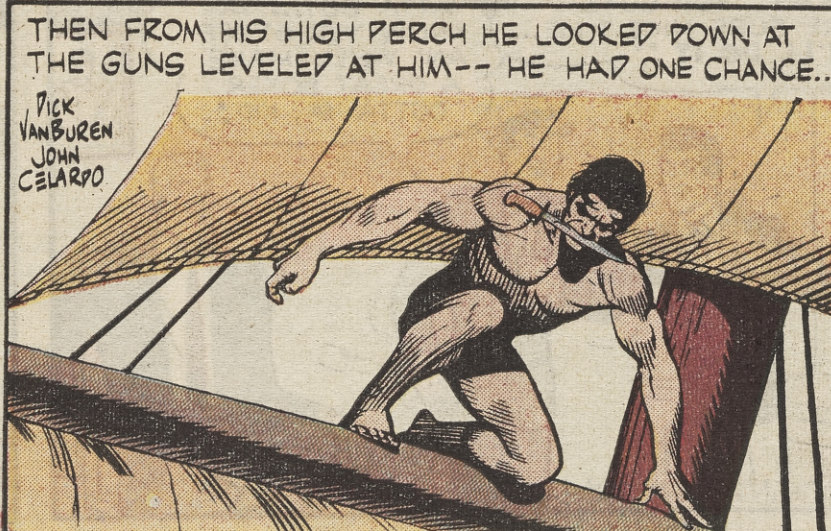

TARZAN GRABBED LIMEY'S KNIFE AND QUICKLY SLICED THE REMAINING ROPE.

TARZAN CUT HIMSELF FREE AND DROPPED TO THE DECK. GRIMLY NOW, HE WATCHED THE ANGRY CREW CHARGE TOWARD HIM.

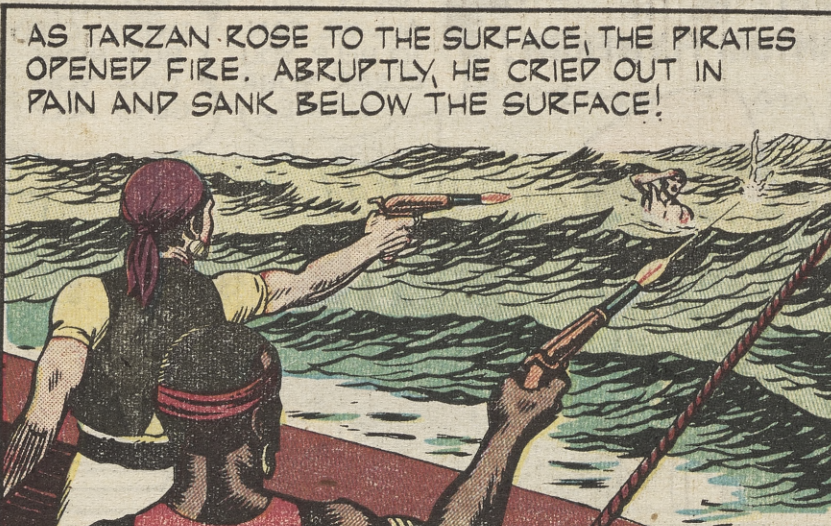

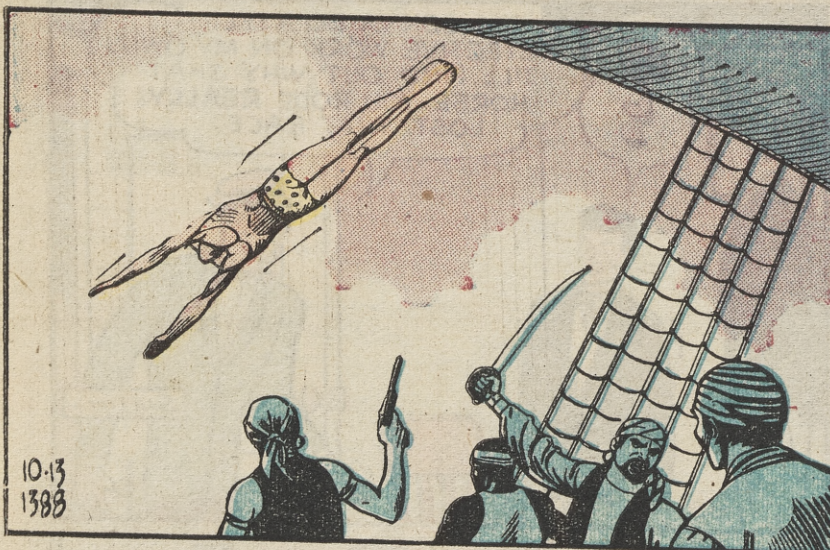

ACTING QUICKLY, THE APE-MAN FLED UP THE MAST WITH THE AGILITY OF A MONKEY!

THEN FROM HIS HIGH PERCH HE LOOKED DOWN AT THE GUNS LEVELED AT HIM-- HE HAD ONE CHANCE.

PICK VANBUREN JOHN CELARDO
